AP 3115 Elections

Election Rules

- The Nominations and Elections Committee (NEC) shall develop a procedure to confirm candidate qualifications.
- To be elected to any Board of Directors Officer position a candidate must receive a simple majority of the votes cast by the Electorate prior to the Annual Business Meeting.
- When the President-Elect position is occupied and the term of the current President has expired or been vacated, the President-Elect will rotate into the position of President for a two-year term or fill the vacated position, respectively. After a full two-year term, the President shall move into the position of Past President.
- Candidates for Region Representative will be declared elected to the position if they run unopposed: i.e., no other qualified candidates submit a letter of intent within the required timetable published by the NEC.
- In the event no candidate receives a simple majority, a runoff election will be held between the candidates with the two (2) highest number of votes. In the event of a tie or lack of a simple majority after the second vote, then the candidates for the Board of Directors position will be chosen by lot.
- There shall be no proxy votes.
- The Board of Directors shall consider the subject of term limits every four (4) years.
- The NEC shall maintain nominations and election procedures and conduct the election process.

The election cycle by position is as follows:

Position	Election Cycle by Fiscal Year

AP 3125 Removal

Failure to attend two (2) successive Board of Directors meetings or failure to uphold the duties of the position, without notice and reasonable cause, may result in being vacated from the position.

1. The dismissal process will include, but is not limited to, a written and verbal notification from the Board of Directors of any potential actions, which may include dismissal from the Board of Directors. Dismissal actions may occur as early as the next scheduled Board of Directors meeting after notification to the Board of Directors member. Dismissal of a Board of Directors member requires a two-thirds majority of those present for approval.
2. An evaluation process may be initiated, if appropriate, prior to dismissal proceedings should the president feel that a Board of Directors member has participated in other valuable activities in the organization, making considerable contribution. This evaluation process can also be used by the president as a tool to evaluate Board of Directors member participation.
 - Communication participation
 - Meeting attendance
 - Absence notification
 - Conference/workshop participation and support
 - Official duties
 - Membership contact
 - Committee participation

Revised:

AP 7405 External Audits

In the fall of each year, an external audit will be provided by an outside CPA for the prior fiscal year. In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, 4CS will:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in the CPA's judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.
